Distinguish yourself in three easy steps

ORCID provides a persistent digital identifier (an ORCID iD) that you own and control, and that distinguishes you from every other researcher. You can connect your iD with your professional information — affiliations, grants, publications, peer review, and more. You can use your iD to share your information with other systems, ensuring you get recognition for all your contributions, saving you time and hassle, and reducing the risk of errors.

Notification settings

ORCID sends email notifications about items related to your account, security, and privacy, including requests from ORCID member organizations for permission to update your record, and changes made to your record by those organizations.

You can also choose to receive emails from us about new features and tips for making the most of your ORCID record.

Please send me quarterly emails about new ORCID features and tips. To receive these emails, you will also need to verify your primary email address.

After you've registered, you can change your notification settings at any time in the account settings section of your ORCID record.

Create your ORCID iD

This is step 3 of 3

Visibility settings

Your ORCID iD connects with your ORCID record that can contain links to your research activities, affiliations, awards, other versions of your name, and more. You control this content and who can see it.

By default, what visibility should be given to new items added to your ORCID Record?

- Everyone (87% of users choose this)
- Trusted Organizations (5% of users choose this)
- Only me (8% of users choose this)

More information on visibility settings

Terms of Use

I consent to the privacy policy and terms of use including agreeing to my data being processed in the US and being publicly accessible where marked as "visible to Everyone".
